

Clients Rave about Ron Chapman

“What a Wonderful World, a book of transitions of the heart, the opening of the Eye of Beauty. Clarity is an aspect of love, it is seeing clearly. Ron Chapman sees with those eyes. He pays attention as few do to the miracles around us. He tells the One Story in all its permutations as a way of drawing us closer to the warmth of our heart.”

Stephen Levine, Author of Who Dies? and Gradual Awakening

“[Seeing True: The Way of Success in Leadership is] enjoyable and informative with fresh perspectives and insights for all types of organizations. I highly recommend it.”

Jim Key, 2003 World Champion of Public Speaking, Toastmasters International

“I whole heartedly recommend Ron for your company.”

Felicia Finston, Partner, Vinson & Elkins LLP

“Ron has style, grace, wit, sincerity, humor and compassion. To say he is a riveting speaker is an understatement.”

Donna Labatt, International Director 2000-02, Toastmasters International

“Blessed with a loving patience so rare in this day and age, [Ron] draws upon his own experience and wide breadth of training in mentoring the personal growth of others...Ron is a beacon in the dark night of the soul.”

Michael Brescia, Attorney at Law

“[What a Wonderful World is] an inspiring, eye opening guidebook for learning to see the world from a fresh perspective...highly recommended for anyone who wishes to live life at a deeper level!”

Sean Murphy, winner of the Hemingway Award for First Novel for
The Hope Valley Hubcap King

“I got more of a transformation here than any workshop ever, and I’ve taken Dale Carnegie, EST, Landmark Forum and On Course.”

“Ron has unique skills in understanding human interaction and dynamics.”

Darwin Harrison, President, Logical Approach LLC

“Ron is awesome. I will take his ideas home with me, and I know I will see a vast improvement in my perception.”

“Wonderful! So simple but so incredibly on target with his message. I really enjoyed this!”

“Thank you for a positive outlook. I’ve participated in too many seminars that made me feel I was inadequate. Thank you for stating we are intended to function well!”

“He really gave me something I can use to be more effective and more fulfilled, personally and professionally!”

Audience member feedback, Society of Human Resource Managers

“I would strongly recommend him as an invaluable asset to any organization confronting change and a renewed identity.”

Alexis Girard, CEO, Greer Enterprises, Inc.

“Ron has a great ability to key in on what people are saying and immediately find ways to address their concerns. In addition, he is a terrific facilitator and possesses knowledge that is of enormous value.”

Roby Wallace, President, EntreBusiness

“Ron Chapman knows how to tell a good story. And, perhaps more importantly, he understands the significance of asking questions that challenge our assumptions, require us to reflect critically on our experiences, and inspire us to be more. The vignettes, examples and insights he provides on Seeing True: The Way of Success in Leadership are engaging, thought provoking, and worth listening to many times over.”

Hallie Preskill, Ph.D., Professor and Consultant, Claremont Graduate University and the University of New Mexico

“[His writings are] a brilliant expression of a man in relationship with himself.”

Kathleen DesMaisons, Ph.D., Author of Potatoes Not Prozac

“I don’t think I will be able to thank you enough for all you have done for me. I think you saved my life.”

Christie Porter

“Ron Chapman has been the instrument that has opened the door to new vistas in my life, my career and my relationships. Through the selfless offer of his time, insight and patience, I have been given a new set of eyes with which to see the world and experience life in ways which were heretofore inconceivable to me. I am privileged to count him as my teacher, my mentor and my friend.”

William H. Cottrell, CPA

“Ron Chapman is a wonderful storyteller...extending and sharing his personal experience...an (extra) ordinary person whose message is: ‘So are you.’”

Tom Selby, MSW, LISW, Teacher of A Course in Miracles

“This is the best leadership session ever!”

Wonderful World of Leadership participant

“Wowsa! I want more of this!”

“Ron is awesome! He can change the world.”

Audience feedback from The Unstoppable Workshop

“Ron effectively led us through a strategic planning process as planner, trainer, coach and facilitator...The outcome was a quality five year strategic plan and, just as important, a process to implement the plan...His experience, skills and resource materials were essential to the success of the process.”

Larry Elmore, Program Manager, New Mexico Department of Health

“Ron lets each of us know that we are not alone, that our most selfish, judgmental thoughts unite us, rather than separate us. Ron points us in the direction of grace and a deeper spiritual life.”

Karen Weaver, Co-creator of The Sacred Present Workshop

“Hearing Ron speak is better and cheaper than therapy, and infinitely more fun. Ron show us that even our greatest character flaws may be blessings in disguise.”

Debra Yoshimura, Internal Audit Director, University of New Mexico

“Thought provoking, inspirational and practical. I found Seeing True: The Way of Success in Leadership to be particularly useful.”

Peter Holter, CEO, The Holter Company

“Ron’s gift is his keen insight and ability to identify and articulate obstacles...from which improved personal and organizational effectiveness can grow.”

Tom Levine, CEO, Empower Development, Int’l

“Do we watch, listen and understand the world the way Ron Chapman does – with a generosity so big our soul is much the better for it?”

Robert Baldwin, Author of The Water Thief and Light & Darkness

“Beyond merely sharing his insights, Ron gives each of us a chance to connect with the truth of our own existence, those pristine, intricate and aching beautiful moments of the human condition. Through his work, we can see past the veils of illusion – grief, loss, death, illness – to remember the grace-filled joy of Being.”

Lydia Ashanin, Practitioner, Science of Mind

“I found your thoughts provocative [and] your message tremendously engaging.”

Melissa Hilleary, The Breakfast Exchange Club

“Your understanding of organization development...has strengthened this company ten-fold.”
